AUTHORIZED DEALER

Stickley's designs... "would be first of all practical and comfortable... the kind of things one could take pride in handing down to one's grandchildren."

—Gustav Stickley

Since 1900, generations of families have furnished their homes with Stickley.

In the beginning it was the historic Mission Collection which started as a rebellion against the ornate Victorian furniture of the time and signified a return to simple ideas, honest craftsmanship, and sturdy construction.

Authentic designs, integrity of construction and commitment to craftsmanship is The Stickley Difference. Furniture rooted in the past, designed for the present, and destined for the future...

Uniquely American.
